

CHAMBOLLE
MUSIGNY

2010 VINTAGE

« The nose is very aromatic and the mouth is in the same vein, combining smoothness and volume. »

Grandes Réussites La Revue du Vin de France – Jun. 2011

« Fragrant, powdery - good village definition in these wines! Quite severe acidity at the moment. Needs quite a bit of time. Bit brutal on the palate at the moment. »

Score 16/20 Jancis Robinson – Feb. 2012

« An expressive and again, liqueur-like nose of black cherry and cassis aromas leads to rich, suave and supple flavors that are shaped by relatively fine tannins and a clean and dry finish of acceptable complexity and fine length. This is a bit more interesting than the prior two wines. 2015+.”

Score 86-89/100 Burghound – Apr. 2012

2008 VINTAGE

«Very vinous Chambolle, complex, spicy, masculine tannins, nice mouthfeel, recommended to wine lovers looking for wines of this character.

Score: 16/20 Le Guide des Vins de France Bettane + Desseauve - 2011

2005 VINTAGE

« Rich and also delicious, this is true Chambolle. The wine revels in its rich, ripe, soft fruits, its flavors of wild strawberries and plum jelly. Of course, there are tannins, a core of dryness, but the exuberant fruit dominates this already delicious wine. » Wine Enthusiast – Dec. 2008

« Stylistically, this is similar to the Volnay though the fruit is slightly more elegant and airier with ripe middle weight flavors supported by firm tannins and the same slightly tough finish though here there is better overall integration of the structure, which at least gives this a chance of eventually harmonizing in time. » Burghound.com - Oct. 2007

« In keeping with the modern, polished style that Chanson seems to have adapted, this is a ripe, new wood-flavored wine. But it doesn't lose the essential Charm of Chambolle-Musigny, incorporating the firm tannins into a more sensuous web of fresh fruit. » Wine Enthusiast – Mar. 2007
