

CHASSAGNE-MONTRACHET 1ER CRU CLOS SAINT JEAN

2010 VINTAGE

" Quite rich and broad but with good delineation. Very fresh. One of Chanson's more solid whites. Dry finish. Not ethereal."

Score: 16.5/20 Jancis Robinson – Feb. 2012

2006 VINTAGE

Score 16,5/20 Le Guide de Reference de la Revue des Vins de France - Edition 2009

« Floral aromas, immediately expressive elegant wine, very ripe fruit but without heaviness. Refined oak, well-groomed, rather more complex than the other Premier Crus.»

Score : 16/20 Le Grand Guide des Vins de France Bettane et Desseuve - Edition 2009

2005 VINTAGE

« Ripe and soft, here is a Chanson white that hasn't been overwhelmed by wood. Instead the delicious yellow and white stone fruits come through, with a creamy edge reminiscent of buttered English muffins, finishing on a high note of juicy, thirst quenching acidity. » Wine Enthusiast – May. 2009

« An extraverted white, with a range of apricot, melon, citrus, and mineral aromas and flavors that are matched by ample flesh and a lively structure, making for a winning combination. »

Score 90/100 Wine Spectator – Aug. 31, 2007

2004 VINTAGE

« The wine is fine, elegant and supple with a tight and delicate aftertaste.»

Bettane & Desseauve TAST PRO – Nov. 2006

« A faint flint note leads to aromas of sliced pear, orange peel and tobacco. Currently lean flavors of pineapple and tart mango show hints of the lusciousness to come in time. Lots of citrus and a smoke note round out the finish. » Wine News – Oct. Nov. 2006

2002 VINTAGE

«Chanson Père et Fils have Champagne in their shares but it is definitely anchored in Burgundy. This Clos Saint Jean has a nice colour and lovely fragrances. After a straightfoward attack, it develops vanilla and toasted bread nuances on a significant mellowness. This wine has a lot of breed and will be perfect to drink in 2005. »
