

MACON-LA ROCHE VINEUSE

"Micro-terroir near the Roche de Solutré (Saône-et-Loire), this unknown Bourgogne, made with chardonnay, deserves to be discovered by lovers of dry white wine. With its lemon and pomelo notes, and a lightly honeyed finish which will improve with time, it goes well over all root vegetables." Le Parisien Magazine - Jan. 9, 2015

2013 VINTAGE

« A bright, juicy version, offering melon, lemon, and floral flavors. On the lean, incisive side, with a chalky, mouthwatering finish. Drink now. »

“Raised in 100% stainless steel. This also flirts with reduction though in this case it does not mask the layered floral and citrus aromas. There is a cool and crisp texture to the minerally and attractively textured flavors that terminate in an acceptably complex and balanced finish that offers good but not special persistence.

This should also drink well young. 2016+.”

2012 VINTAGE

“Elegant. Its smoky notes of flint stone recount well the "winy" rock whence it comes. Its palate is direct, with a fine fleshiness, elegant, balanced, a long and delightful finale. Following smoked salmon, suggest a chicken with crayfish and cream, after all it's Christmas!" Valérie de Lescure - Cuisine actuelle – Nov. Dec. 2014

2011 VINTAGE

"[...] A vintage in a beautiful shiny dress and covered with golden sparks. The aromas evokes brioche, citrus and white flowers. Cheers from the attack, the mouth moves on a beautiful area, full and fresh. A harmonious wine to enjoy today on a perfect chicken liver in the way of foie gras. "
