Score: 15.5/20 – Guide des vins Bettane + Desseauve 2018

“On the compact side for the vintage, this delivers pear, honey and lime blossom aromas and flavors. Backed by a firm structure, with a hint of tannins on the finish. Best from 2018 through 2025.”

Score: 89/100 – Wine Spectator – Jul. 31, 2017

“A noticeably toasty nose reflects notes of orange peel, apple, pear and hazelnut. The lavishly rich, indeed almost oily, flavors coat the palate with sap where the texture contrasts markedly with the clean, dry and slightly minty finish. I definitely wouldn’t describe this as classic but it certainly doesn’t lack for volume and opulence. “

Score: 88/100 – Burghound – Jun. 2017

2014 VINTAGE

“ Lime blossom, citronella, toast, vanilla and citrus flavors pervade this sleek, tense white. Opens with air, staying focused and long on the finish. Best from 2018 through 2024. “

Score: 92/100 Wine Spectator – May. 31, 2017

“A real Meursault nose with spicy bread, freshness. Round in the mouth, supple faint tannin, a little mineral. A hint of spicy flavour. Direct and slowly mouth-watering without being effusive. A discreet but proper Meursault... Tasty in the finish too... ” Bill Nanson - The Burgundy Report – Feb. 1, 2016

2013 VINTAGE

"Notes of reduction, closed, opens up with air. Mild with a good texture, fresh and spicy with hazelnut in the aftertaste." Score: 14.5/20 - Le Point - Sep. 3, 2015

"Clear-cut citrus, only a very slight smokiness. Pure and tight on the palate, relatively light on the finish and in harmony overall. Lively, restrained Meursault but without great intensity or, I suspect, longevity. (JH) Drink 2016-2019."

Score: 16/20 Julia Harding

"A nicely complex nose is comprised of acacia blossom, pear and hazelnut scents. There is good intensity to the delicious, round and generous middle weight flavors that are attractively fresh and I like the texture of the ever-so-slightly mineral-inflected finish. This should drink well young as well as reward 3 to 5 years of aging.

« Floral, lime and apple aromas and flavors mark this elegant white. Needs time to develop, but there's plenty going on, all corralled by the vibrant structure.

Best from 2017 through 2025. »

"Appetizing, generous, lots of character, beautiful volume."

Score : 16,5/20 Le Guide Bettane & Desseauve des Vins de France - 2014

"Nose of citrus, ripe fruit, gingerbread, or lime blossom which gives way to a generous and deep palate. A great Meursault, classic, warm, driven by a good maturity conveying to this wine a beautiful volume. Hedonistic and refined."

Score : 15/20 La Revue du Vin de France – Apr. 2014

"Open and generous, offering flavors of toast, butterscotch and sugar-browned apple, with a hint of grapefruit. The acidity is most evident on the finish.

Drink now through 2018."

Score : 89/100 Wine Spectator – Nov. 15, 2013

"A deft touch of wood sets off the pungent nose of mild reduction, pear and hazelnut nuances. There is good volume to the delicious and highly energetic middle weight flavors that possess a light mineral component on the saline infused, persistent and appealingly textured finish. This is a fine villages and worth considering."

Score : 89/100 Burghound – Jun. 2013

"Light, lemon and lifted. Dances on to the palate. Zesty, pure and tight. It shimmers across the palate. Firm acidity and minerality. It is spritely. Lovely typicity for these "lieu dits". It is good to see a negoce focusing on these potentially elegant higher vineyards for the village Meursault, from 2014." Sarah Marsh - Dec. 2012

"[...] We like the restrained style. This wine displays lots of volume and finesse. This reserved character gives way to a good persistence." Success, La Revue du Vin de France – Jun. 2012

2010 VINTAGE

"Together with Maison Champy, Chanson Père et Fils has regained their former glow since several vintages. Good news. This beautiful and inense Meursault combines density, freshness and expressive character, flavors, and length. It is precise, without caramelized heaviness, nor cumbersome woody notes." (5+)^{}1/2, Le Devoir - Nov. 2012

"Excellent "assemblage", clear, precise, good grape maturity, true to its "terroir", well-crafted oak note."

Score: 16/20, Le Guide Bettane et Dessauve des vins de France - 2013

"A very beautiful white, delicate and mature, produced by one of the most talented winemakers Jean-Pierre Confuron and Maison Bollinger." Rustica - Dec. 2012

"Aromas of hazelnut, lime blossom, lemon and apple introduce this precise, elegant white. Picks up a chalky mineral note on the long finish. Best from 2014 through 2020."

Score : 91/100 Wine Spectator - Jan. Feb. 2013

"Rather sweet, floral nose. Well sculpted with a dry finish. Very chewy - not quite enough juice but masses of acidity !" Score : 16/20 Jancis Robinson – Feb. 2012

"Nutty, buttery aroma, new hay - quite a lot of oak present on the nose and marked on the palate too. Juicy, firm acidity. Really quite robust, in the full-bodied Meursault style, generous and meaty. The finish is firm and assured. Plenty of presence for village wine. Good. From 2013 Interestingly there are 4 origins and this is the core wine - the one with richness and fat. Added to this will be wine from Les Clous and Vireuils. These higher vineyards should add some minerality and finesses."

Sarah Marsh - Burgundy Briefing – Nov. 2011

2009 VINTAGE

"Floral, lime, apple and peach flavours permeate this bright and elegant white, which shows intensity and builds to a lingering aftertaste of citrus and toast.

Drink now through 2014."

Score : 90/100 Wine Spectator - Aug. 2012

«Noticeable wood frames notes of hazelnut, citrus and spiced pear that precede the reasonably concentrated and very round flavors that possess a soft mid-palate, all wrapped in a delicious if simple finish that offers acceptable length. This very forward effort does display good Meursault character however. »

Score: 87/100 Burghound – Jul. 2011

2008 VINTAGE

«Excellent assemblage, giving a fair idea of the appellation. All the expected fatness and roundness, without being present in excess, remarkable finesse.»

Score: 16/20 Le Guide des Vins de France - Bettane + Desseauve 2011

«Very representative of the appellation in this vintage. The wine is rich without seeming heavy, balanced with a beautifully fresh finish. » Le Nouvel Observateur – Sep. 2010

«Classic Meursault, big and hold with a rounded texture. That said, the wine does have a crisp edge of green apples to balance the spiced toast, which is very evident at this stage. “

Score: 87/100 Wine Enthusiast Sep. 2011

« Marked oak spice on the nose at the moment but there are nutty and mineral aromas underneath. Quite smoky. Fine depth of fruit, tight and mineral on the palate. Very long. »

Score: 17/20 Julia Harding MW - Jancis Robinson.com- Jan. 2010

« A slightly spicy and mandarin tinged aroma. Sweet attack to a nicely plump middle palate with good viscosity and appealing spicy notes. Ripe with well balanced acidity and a fruit driven finish. Perfectly decent village wine with good typicité.

Good. » Tasting Notes Numéro II - Sarah Marsh - Spring 2009

2006 VINTAGE

« Well integrated, elegant, dense, oaky. An authentic wine with a very understandable terroir, highly recommended.. » Score: 16/20 Le Grand Guide des

Vins de France FRANCE Bettane + Desseauve - 2009

« All the fat fruit of Meursault was its best in 2005, and even Chanson's use of high toast wood for aging the whites cannot hide it. Pineapple and peach flavors go with sweet yellow plums, juicy red apple acidity, and an exotic ginger and nutmeg spice that add complexity. » Wine Enthusiast – May. 2009

«Recently and vigorously taken over, this old negociant in Beaune now ranks among the best of Burgundy. Aside from its outstanding red wines, the quality of the white wines has constantly improved. This Meursault 2005 is full, elegant with well-integrated oak. Very authentic, the terroir character stands out. Highly recommended. » Le Monde – Sep. 2008

« This well-toned version is vibrant and infused with lime, hazelnut and apple notes. A mineral accent emerges as this unwinds on the finish. On the taut side. »
Wine Spectator – Aug. 31, 2007

« This Meursault from the Vireuils area has an elegant palate and a beautiful finesse. » Bettane + Desseauve TAST PRO – Nov. 2006

2002 VINTAGE

“The colour is bright and clean. The wine is closed at the beginning and then it gives off beautiful and fine sensation (light aniseed and honey nuances). The underlying acidity supports the whole bunch. The fruit is there with a lot of distinction. It will be more open in the coming 2 to 4 years. » Le Guide Hachette des Vins 2005
