2015 VINTAGE

Score: 16/20 – Jancis Robinson – Dec. 2016

Score: 90/100 – The Wine Spectator - 2017

“There is a trace of exoticism to the spicy white fruit compote-like aromas that give way to silky, pure, detailed and seductively textured flavors that possess plenty of volume, indeed they are almost oily, on the expansive, highly complex and balanced finish. This strikingly good effort should age well over the medium-term.

Score: 93/100 – Burghound – Jun. 2017

“ Ripe citrus aroma and cedary oak, with a slight dustiness bringing needed restraint. Generous on the mid palate in fruit and lees texture but not that much focus. Dies away on the finish. “

Score: 16/20 Julia Harding – www.jancisrobinson.com

2014 VINTAGE

Score : 16/ 20 – Guide des Vins Bettane + Desseauve 2017

"We have hit the heart of delicateness with this wine thanks to a discreet ageing. Magnificent and enveloping finish with notes of roasted pips."

Score: 16-17/20 La Revue du Vin de France – May. 2015

2013 VINTAGE

Score: 94/100 - Preview - Wine Enthusiast August issue 2016

“Still seems to smell a little of the ferment – pears and green fruit. So fresh it is almost tart, but just on the right side of the line. Drives across the palate, clothed in a creamy lees covering that mitigates the acidity. A bit hard on the finish. Drink 2017-2023 »

Score: 16,5/20 Julia Harding 2015

2011 VINTAGE

"There is a very mild trace of reduction to the otherwise cool and restrained floral and white orchard fruit aromas that display background nuances of wood and spice. There is impressive volume to the quite seductively textured medium-bodied flavors that possess plenty of mouth coating extract that buffers well the moderately firm acid spine on the mineral-driven, dry and balanced finish. This is not presently super complex but the underlying material is certainly present to allow it to develop and my score awards the benefit of the doubt in this regard. 2017+ "

Score: 91/100 Burghound – Jun. 2013

" The aromas of vanilla, nutmeg and clove are augmented by flavors of lemon, apple and hazelnut in this lush yet stylish white. Remains elegant and vibrant through the lingering finish. Best from 2015 through 2023."

Score : 91/100 Wine Spectator – Mar. 2014

"Rich, nutty spicy with a little marked wood...full bodied, rich with breath and dense with candied fruit. It has shoulders. It is certainly ripe. The acidity is lost in the wine, but is balanced. Quite honeyed. On the edge of freshness. This has strength and no doubt aging potential...From 2016. " Sarah Marsh - Dec. 2012

"A voluminous and firm wine, tight, with a very pure and fresh finish. Good ageing potential." Success

La RVF – Jun. 2012 N°562

2010 VINTAGE

"Very attractive, racy, subtle, fresh, energetic. Grapes have been harvested when completely ripe, long, elegant, impeccable style."

Score: 17.5/20 Le Guide Bettane et Dessauve des vins de France - Edition 2013

A ripe wine which is still closed. The mouth is tight and clear. This Puligny displays a refined concentration and a beautiful brightness. Réussites exceptionnelles La Revue du Vin de France – Jun. 2011

"Domaine 33 ares. Some kiwi fruit and peach here. Light touch of hazelnut and dark minerality. Richness on the front of the palate; a very creamy and coating texture, underscored with firm acidity and harder minerality which carries on the finish. While the body is full, the finish is very mineral and direct. Fine(+) From 2014"

Sarah Marsh - Burgundy Briefing – Nov. 2011

2009 VINTAGE

«Dramatic burnished gold; deep wells of golden fruitiness, much toastiness and vinosity to come. Beautiful glycerol-rich texture en bouche,- Pure hedonism but with so much substance and intensity to run a marathon maturing distance. Quite exceptional.”

Score: 18/20 The World of Fine Wine - 2011

«Tense and mineral, this premier cru will gain volume as it ages, the texture is superb and pure. Exceptional. » La Revue du Vin de France 542 – Jun. 2010

«Lots of non-fruit aromas: mineral, struck match and a little smoky. But that doesn't mean there's no fruit. Clean, pure citrus intensity. Almost a touch of spiced honey. Length and depth and fine balance, with just a light and appropriate grip at the very end. “

Score: 17/20 Julia Harding MW - Jancis Robinson.com – Jan. 2011

«Here the nose is quite strongly reduced and I would advise decanting this if you're going to try one young. Otherwise, there is a mild toastiness to the very round, forward and subtly mineral-inflected medium-bodied flavors that offer good length. The nose confers a somewhat awkward aspect to the overall impression however and it's not clear how this will age. “

Score: 90/100 Burghound 33 – Jul. 2011

« Tense and mineral, this premier cru should gain volume with the aging process, but the texture is superb and pure. » La Revue Du Vin De France – Jun. 2010

2008 VINTAGE

"The Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Folatières stems from a parcel with a chalky soil with an important proportion of clay which gives to this wine a subtle minerality. The vines are oriented South-East. The grapes are pressed with a pneumatic press so that only the heart of juice is kept. Fermentation takes place in oak barrels at low temperature and then the wine matures for a period of 14 months with regular stirring to acquire more richness. Beautiful pale gold color. Aromas of white fruit mixed with notes of smoke, a nice minerality and vanilla notes from the maturation in oak barrels. The attack is powerful and well balanced. The finish is long, taut and mineral. This long-aging wine from Domaine Chanson Père et Fils must be stored for a few years. It will be a perfect match for foie gras, river fish, seafood and goat cheese."

Score: 16.5/20 Le Figaro - Dec. 2012

«Harvested by Chanson. Exceptionally fine, full bodied, not far from the ideal. “

Score: 18/20 Le Guide des Vins de France - Bettane & Desseauve 2011

«Ripe, forward nose with flowers, summer fruits and oak. Lively and both lifted and crisp. Ripe, forward style with an orange nuance. Excellent mineral backbone; very finely tuned.”

Score: 17.5/20 - 4 Stars Highly Recommended Decanter – Dec. 2010

«Great mineral wine, with wonderful lemon and pineapple Flavors. The texture is light, balancing wood, acidity and crisp fresh fruit. The wine has all the elements for aging.»

Score: 93/100 Wine Enthusiast – Sep. 2011

« Fine, energetic, smoky nose. Restrained and very inviting. A bit lighter on the palate than I expected from the nose but elegant and streamlined, just a little closed. Fresh lemon zest at the very end. »

Score: 17/20 Julia Harding MW - Jancis Robinson.com – Jan. 2011

« Very pure and bright. It is lifted, energetic attack. Taut middle palate with vibrant tension of fruit and acidity. Lovely stone minerality, slight spice and good intensity. Verve on the finish. Firmly fine. » Tasting Notes, No II Sarah Marsh – Summer 2009

«If the start is quite discreet, it is well-shaped and you can already discern its powerful character. Long and refined. » La Revue du Vin de France – Jun. 2009

2007 VINTAGE

« First vinification of a newly acquired vineyard. The new control of the vineyard is immediately perceptible: Higher level of grape ripeness, more intense texture, lots of elegance, not a single sign of oxidation starting. A lot of class.

Harvested at 13.6 alcohol percentage... »
