2013 VINTAGE

Favorite "Oyster shell, velvety on the palate, tense, refreshing and floral in the aftertaste." Guide des vins Bettane + Desseauve 2016

Score : 15/20 - La Revue du vin de France - Les Meilleurs vins de France 2016 - 20ème édition

"A wine possessing a nose intense with yellow fruits and fresh pineapple. The mouth is full, honeyed, savoury, subtly saline. "" Le figaro Magazine – May. 22, 2015

“Here the expressive nose is a bit more elegant if no more complex with its pretty aromas of white peach, lavender and citrus rind. There is both good richness but also relatively good detail to the lightly stony and vibrant flavors that deliver solid persistence if limited depth. Still, I like the delivery of this well-made effort that once again should drink well almost immediately. 2017+.”

Score: 88/100 – Burghound – Jun. 2015

2010 VINTAGE

"Beautiful nose of fresh hazelnut, flattering but fresh wine. Open and appealing. Unfortunately there will be none in 2011 due to the hail."

Score: 16 Le Guide Bettane et Dessauve des vins de France - Edition 2013

"One village parcel from La Bergerie, on the hill. Apricot aroma with light exotic spice. Ripe on the attack, Juicy, fruity and generous. It is supple. Just stainless steel, even though there is a slight impression of oak. Softly plump and inviting.

Good. From 2012" Sarah Marsh - Burgundy Briefing – Nov. 2011

2008 VINTAGE

«The best value for money for a white wine at Chanson, very pure both on the nose and in the mouth. No heaviness. Has a fresh hazelnut finish like a Meursault, immediately appealing.”

Score: 15/20 Le Guide des Vins de France Bettane + Desseauve - 2011

2007 VINTAGE

« This old house presents a Rully stemming from a grape supply. Delicate gold colour with shimmering notes. Complex and intense nose balancing between mineral character of the terroir and the floral fragrances of the grape variety. In the mouth, we have the same combination of aromas which lingers on citrus fruit aromas. A superb wine representative of the appellation, to age for one year.» Le Guide Hachette des Vins 2010

2006 VINTAGE

« Tight, elegant, with aromas of pale fleshed fruit, honey and minerality. Refined refreshing note. » Avantages – Dec. 2007

« Fresh, floral with hints of vanilla. Lovely acidity, structure and long finish.» La Revue du Vin de France – Jun. 2007

2005 VINTAGE

« This house in good shape presents a crunchy and well-structured Chardonnay with fresh aromatics and a pleasant style. The supply maturity of the fruit (a hallmark of the year) will guarantee success. Food pairing: gougères or fish terrine.» La Revue du Vin de France - Mar. 2008

« No bad surprises in the cellars of Chanson whose vineyards extend across the best white wines terroirs in Burgundy. For this Rully 2005, the oenologist selected a plot in the heart of the Côte Chalonnaise whose soil is made of clay, limestone and sand. Beautiful full colour with green tinges, refreshing aromas of fruit, with a hint of honey and a marked minerality. Lively and fresh it will match successfully a Volaille de Bresse, a fish (a pike (for instance) in cream sauce.» Le Berry Republicain – Jan. 2008

«Lovely gold colour. Medium structure, but harmonious, fleshy, fruity, simple and delicious.» Bourgogne aujourd'hui - Oct. Nov. 2007

« The nose is a bit closed. However the palate is defined by lovely density, structure and length. Together it makes for a very alluring wine. » La Revue du Vin de France – Oct. 2007

« A beautiful gold colour with green hints. Fresh aromas of white fruits and honey, all held up by a beautiful mineral backbone. Lively, fresh and well-balanced, this wine is elegant, well structured and harmonious with a smooth minerality. » Le Monde des Vins et Spiritueux – Apr. 2007

« Elegant, harmonious and well structured wine with a fine minerality. It will seduce by its freshness and its persistence. » La Marseillaise - Apr. 2007

2003 VINTAGE

« Typical of the vintage, this fleshy wine offers exotic fruit on the finish.
Greedy. » La Revue du Vin de France – Feb. 2005 gras en bouche. Gourmand. » La
