Score : 15.5/20 – Le Guide des Meilleurs Vins de France - 2017

Score : 14/20 – Guide des Vins Bettane + Desseauve - 2017

« Here the markedly savage and pungently earthy nose displays much darker fruit, in particular black cherry, along with hints of violet and sandalwood. There is a lovely sense of vibrancy to the detailed and sleekly muscular flavors that are presently youthfully austere yet there is fine finishing depth and length. This will need a minimum of 4 to 5 years of cellaring first but it should be worth the wait. Worth your consideration. 2021+ »

Score: 90/100 - Allen Meadows - Burghound – Apr. 2016

2013 VINTAGE

"A completely different nose is present here with its mix of red berries and earth but this is Santenay style earth that is less humus and more iron-inflected compared to the Gevrey. There is a touch of wood present on the lightly mineral-infused medium-bodied flavors that possess a lovely sense of vibrancy on the firm, rustic and lingering finish. This is solidly structured but not hard and if you have some patience this offers fine value. 2020+."

Score: 89/100 Burghound – Jun. 2015

"Lightish crimson. Gentle red cherry fruit. A touch peppery. Soft, juicy, straightforward and finishes with mouthwatering but not excessive freshness. Drink 2016-2020."

Score: 19/20 Julia Harding

2012 VINTAGE

"Visual aspect: ruby-red colour, with black dried fruits, sloe. Slightly peppery. Palate: supple first taste, broad, powerful; Tannic structure, dry tannings. Match with foods: beef cheek with pepper; jugged hare. Comments: beautiful to accompany venison because of its rustic character and its robustness. Ageing: 2020" Sommeliers international - Hors-Série - N° 149 – Nov. 12, 2015

Score : 93/100 Burgundy 2012 - Special Report - Tim Atkin

"A mildly toasty nose features notes of earth and various dark berries. There is a noticeable touch of stem influence to the middle weight, ripe and delicious flavors that possess acceptable complexity, balance and length. This is relatively forward and should be enjoyable with only a few years of bottle age."

Score : 88/100 Burghound.com- Apr. 2014 - Allen Meadows

2009 VINTAGE

« This Premier Cru displays a beautiful structure, with fleshy and pretty notes of black fruit, underlined with a delicate touch of spice. Very well made» La Revue du Vin de France – Jun. 2010

« An intensely earthy and wild berry fruit nose marries into detailed, minerally and vibrant middle weight flavors that culminate in a moderately austere and solidly persistent finish. This offers very good if not truly exceptionally quality for the appellation.

Score: 88-91/100 Burghound – Apr. 2010

« Palish cherry colour. Inviting, lightly spiced red fruit. Good depth of fruit, fresh and moreish. Lots of early pleasure but not without structure and a smooth - but not soft - long finish.»

Score: 16.5/20 Julia Harding MW - Jancis Robinson.com – Jan. 2011

« This 1er Cru displays a beautiful structure, with fleshy and pretty notes of black fruit, all underlined with a delicate touch of spice. » La Revue Des Vins De France – Jun. 2010

"Beautiful impression on the nose, with earthy and toasted oak aroma. A sprinkle of vanilla on the intense cherry aromas. Consistent tannins combined with a certain ripeness. Fleshy, muscular and supple with a sappy and yet elegant character which is not so common for this village. This wine which is not known already displays a good balance which may induce you to enjoy it right away." Gastronomica – Oct. 2011

2008 VINTAGE

"Beautifully perfumed in a relatively light style, this Santenay is full of red limits, sweet tannins and mouth-watering acidity. It has some richness, although the main character is of freshness. "

Score: 88/100 Wine Enthusiast – Jul. 2011

"Typical nose, notes of leather, strawberry, spices, smooth and slightly astringent finish."

Score: 14.5/20 Le Guide des Vins de France Bettane + Desseuve - 2011

"Soft and delicious, aromas of red fruits. Fresh finish, and a touch of astringency that should edge out with aging. " Le Nouvel Observateur – Sep. 2010

« Dark-red fruit, sweetly fragrant. Harmonious with more middle than many reds in the vintage. Sandy tannins. »

Score: 16/20 Julia Harding MW - Jancis Robinson.com – Jan. 2010

« Lively cherry aroma with a slight hint of methyl. Very sweet fruit on the attack, fresh and energetic with soft tannins, but there is also a bit of substance. A very attractive juicy, fruity wine. Good»

Score: 15/20 Tasting Notes Sarah Marsh – Sep. 2009

« Fresh and precise attack, the wine is lean and expressive. Nice aftertaste of fruit. » La Revue du Vin de France – Jun. 2009

2007 VINTAGE

« Bright ruby colour. Aromas of Morello Cherry. In the mouth, lots of fruit with light mineral nuances. Dense, mellow, fleshy with leather notes. It fills up the mouth with charm and elegance on a refreshing note. Long aftertaste.» Le Figaro Magazine – Apr. 25, 2009
