2006 VINTAGE

« Appears stubble, but has lots of structure. Very pure. » La Revue du Vin de France – Jun. 2007

2005 VINTAGE

« Dense palate with beautiful tannins on the finish. Should mellow wonderfully with age. » La Revue du Vin de France – Jun. 2006

2004 VINTAGE

« Somewhat dusty in aromas and taste, this wine has plenty of structure. The fruit is harder to find, showing through the wood tannins and the firm, dense texture. Needs 4-5 years to develop. » Wine Enthusiast – Mar. 2007

2002 VINTAGE

« A rich, concentrated wine that shows rich, red fruit and sweet tannins. It is in a modern, wood-dominated style but will develop well. »
